

Bad Business

Horror Story

Nowadays, people think that money brings happiness. But I can prove them wrong.

Three dead bodies were asleep on the floor because of a man who had sacrifice his wife and his son for money. Ivy, a thirty-year-old rich woman, began to get bored of being alone because she wasn't married, and had no children. She had everything she wanted except happiness. So she was impatient. Her father told her not to go too fast with that because her life was at stake.

Unfortunately, his daughter would not listen to him. One afternoon, as she was taking a walk, she met a poor man who was selling his last belongings. She gave him some money out of pity. Then the poor man, named Thomas, asked her if she wanted to have dinner with him in the evening and she accepted. A few months later, they were married and Ivy got pregnant. They were comfortable together. Yet, this happiness didn't last for a long time.

Every Thursday, he used to hang out with this strange friend of his who looked mean. He started being violent with his wife who did not understand why. In fact every Thursday he used to attend a sect which practised human sacrifices. It was witchcraft to get money. He had been going there since he had tasted money and he couldn't get enough of it.

One day, when they were relaxing on their sofa, Thomas took their son to a special room in which Ivy was not allowed. The colors were red like blood and black. When Thomas entered, all the members were waiting for them. They formed a circle. Then they didn't waste time and put the baby in a pounding stick, a specific utensil for cooking ignam. His wife was waiting in the hall and was worry because she had an intuition that something bad was happening. Next he struck in and she could see a lot of blood spilling on the wall. Thomas showed no feelings. Ivy knew that something bad had happened so she climbed the stairs quickly, fell down but she didn't stop and ran until she reached the room. When she opened the door, she saw a tremendous amount of blood which was certainly her son's. She stood there, puzzled by the shock which gave the opportunity to her husband to rush to her and cut her head with a machete.

At that moment Thomas thought he would become a millionaire after all his sacrifices but the sect told him that there was not enough blood yet and they guzzled him.

Glory be to God.
