

-THE STORY TELLER-

September 6 1956

Evening edition

scary or not?

In today edition, our journalist Marilou Da Silva will present to you an old story, to all our reader be prepared to discover the strange story of the young Ella Harper, who had a really particular life style for a person of her age.

Marilou Da Silva

Marilou Da Silva is a brend new journalist who is looking at in the past to find breking news information just for you to find out about new stories.

The Camel Girl

This week I interviewed a young girl named Ella Harper who's suffering off a disease called the congenital genu recurvatum. This disease is usually a knees malformation.

